

Worcester March 8. 1869.

My dear Sir,

<sup>14</sup> My absence during the past week has prevented an earlier acknowledgment of your great kindness. I find your favor of the 1st instant and the letter for foreign acquaintance.

I am utterly unable sufficiently to thank you for the pains you have taken. Your liberality & generosity far surpasses any thing I had a right to expect.

The persons you have selected are of all in the world such as I could most desire to know.

I beg you to feel assured that I will endeavor to make a creditable use of your letters, and I promise you that it shall be my special aim to do full justice to you in every instance. If in any case I shall not be able to see any of the persons I will address a note to such together with your letter. You may rest assured that I will take care that your appreciation of European kindness and country shall be fully vouched by me, and I shall also have great pleasure in unifying your friends on the other side of the grateful satisfaction felt by your own countrymen, and by none more than by myself, for the just & only just tribute you received there.

Again thanking you, my dear Sir, for your favors & for your suggestions as to the manner of using them, I remain, with the highest respect & Esteem,

Most truly,

Most faithfully,

Your Obedt Servt,

Alex<sup>r</sup> H. Bullock

Mr Garrison.
